Key Stage 4 Curriculum

In Year 11 English Literature Students will study:

	Winter Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
Students study AQA GCSE English Literature. https://www.aqa.org.uk/subjects/english/gcse/english-8702/assessment-resources
Content	Term 1 – Paper 2 An Inspector Calls, Power and Conflict Poetry and Unseen Poetry	Term 2 – Paper 1 revision Macbeth and A Christmas Carol.	Term 3 – Revision
	Students begin by studying the modern text, which is An Inspector Calls by J.B. Priestley. They then continue to study the remaining poems from the Power and Conflict poetry cluster and look at Unseen poetry.	Students revise the GCSE English Literature texts studied in y10 – Macbeth and A Christmas Carol	Students will continue to revise texts studied based on class need and gaps in knowledge.
Homework	Homework will be set using Educake 1 week and based on skills revision in the other week.	Homework will be set using Educake 1 week and based on skills revision in the other week.	Homework will be set using Educake 1 week and based on skills revision in the other week.
Wider Curriculum	Cross Curricular links: Links to History with study of some of the Power and Conflict Poetry, and drama with texts in performance. Career Link: All careers require English but the focus on analysis will help with careers in law and analytics, the study of plays will help with careers in the performing arts and the study of rhetoric would help with careers in sales and advertising.
Assessment	1. A complete English Literature Paper 2	2. A full suite of English Literature mocks – paper 1 and paper 2.	3. Students will be completing their GCSE examinations this term.